TO: HEADS AND PRINCIPAL MANAGERS OF INDEPENDENT AGENCIES AND ESTABLISHMENTS

FROM: Loren A. Smith, Chairman Loren A. Smith

SUBJECT: Briefing on the Administration's Procurement Reforms

The Honorable Donald E. Sowle, the Administrator of OMB's Office of Federal Procurement Policy, will brief AMIG member agencies on the new Federal Acquisition Regulations and other procurement reform initiatives on Tuesday, December 6th, from 2:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. The briefing will take place in the Amphitheatre of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, at 1700 G Street, NW.

Mr. Sowle will present an overview of the new Federal Acquisition Regulations which will replace all agencies' existing contracting regulations on April 1st, culminating more than five years of government-wide effort. He will also outline OFPP's efforts to increase the use of competitive procedures in contracting, and discuss recent developments regarding OMB Circular A-76. Questions from the floor will be taken.

We hope that you and your key line and procurement officials will join us. Attendance may be limited by the space available. Please call this office to reserve a place if you wish to attend.
